Dear Mr Weisberg,

I've just finished reading Case Open. I must say that I admire not only the extent of your research and the sharpness of your analysis, but I'm also amazed at your persistence and bravery. I wouldn't want to speculate on exactly how the conspiracy unfolded, or how involved any agencies of the government and/or other actors in this tragedy were, but it is certain (on the basis of the evidence you've presented) that Oswald was not the assassin. One wonders when, if ever, the truth will be told and why it is currently being hidden.

In any event, I wish you every success in exposing what you can in what ever time remains to you. Your commitment makes you a true American hero.

Very Sincerely,

Patrick Kielty
